Tell her she's wonderful.

Take a moment today to tell your daughters that they are fearfully and wonderfully made.

Psalm 139:14 - I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

Remind her she's a warrior.

As you are getting your daughters ready for school this morning, remind them that they are more than conquerors in Christ.

Romans 8:37 - No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

Tell her God is guarding her.

When you are saying goodnight to your daughters tonight, tell them that God is guarding them and watching over them as they sleep.

Isaiah 26:3 - You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you.

Compliment her inner beauty.

Does your daughter have a gentle spirit? Compliment her for being beautiful both inside and out.

Galatians 5:22-23 - But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

Give her a voice.

If your daughter is strong-willed, she is a leader in the making! Tell her how wonderful it is that she has ideas and opinions and teach her how to share them with humility.

Matthew 20:26 - Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant.

Affirm her good choices.

It's easy to make emotional decisions, but they can easily get us into trouble! Celebrate the times your daughter resists temptation and does what will bring her peace

Hebrews 12:11 - No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.

Tell her she's special.

Is your daughter competitive by nature? Encourage her assertiveness! It's better to be real and authentic than to fake modesty or underperform on purpose. Girls shouldn't ever have to apologize for being good at what they do.

1 Corinthians 10:31 - No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.

Encourage her bravery.

Did your daughter take a deliberate risk while playing a strategy game or step out of her comfort zone in real life? Let her know how amazed you were! No matter what stands in her way, God is with her and she can "do it afraid!"

Psalms 27:1 - The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?

Embrace God's healing power.

When your daughter's having a hard time but doesn't want to talk about it with you, depend on the Holy Spirit to show you how you can help. If you're feeling rejected yourself, ask God to heal your heart first, so you can be positive and full of peace

Hebrews 12:14 - Make every effort to live in peace with everyone and to be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord.
